Year of Call: 1991

Year took silk: 2011

Recognised in Chambers & Partners Guide to the Bar as "at the top of his game and a silk that no other barrister wants to face in court."

Simon specialises in:

- Fraud and Financial Crime
- Homicide
- Health and Safety and Regulatory
- Terrorism
- Organised Crime

Simon specialises in all aspects of criminal law, in particular homicide, serious fraud and organised crime. He has defended many high-profile cases such as Dale Cregan, Arran Coghlan, and Operation Elveden (the News International cases.) He is widely praised for his devastating cross-examinations.

He exclusively defends in serious and complex crime and fraud, together with related hearings in other tribunals. His practice encompasses murder, gross negligence manslaughter, evasion of duty, MTIC and serious fraud, terrorism, complex multi-handed drugs cases and corruption.

He has appeared in many high-profile cases. He defended John Hardy, a former sergeant major, in Operation Elveden who was accused of selling stories about Prince William and Prince Harry to The Sun. He was the only source to be acquitted by a jury in those News International trials. As well as his skills as a jury advocate, he is well known for his ability to develop complex legal arguments. He is known for his mastery of detail even in cases with voluminous quantities of evidence. He has an advanced knowledge of computing which can assist with the management of large amounts of evidence.

He led for the defence in the first case in which an application for independent special counsel for disclosure was granted [R v Greaves]. Since then he has made several successful applications for special counsel which led to the cases collapsing.

He has defended a number of solicitors and professionals in recent years who have found themselves charged with criminal offences.

He has advised CEOs, such as Julian Wheatland, former Chief Executive of Cambridge Analytica.

He will provide an extremely comprehensive and involved service together with a robust defence to those charged with more minor offences who wish to pay privately.

He also appears in Sport Regulatory work and has appeared before the FA Appeal Committee and the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne. In 2012 he succeeded in restoring Bradford City FC to the FA cup after they were disqualified.

SFO v Richard Emmett – Successful defence of solicitor charged with fraud in respect of the Cayman and Isle of Man based litigation fund investment, Axiom. Prosecuted by the SFO after a ten year investigation, who instructed three counsel including two QCs. The fund allowed investors to put their money into a fund which lent on no win, no fee cases. This was a significant fraud case that affected a large part of the market in litigation. There were complex offshore arrangements which the SFO have been investigating for several years. There was also a linked USA investigation.

Richard Emmett was the only defendant acquitted. The Times Daily Mail

R v Mark Quayle (Operation Aquamarine) – Successful defence of Barclays manager in a multinational fraud involving off-shore special purpose tax companies in the Isle of Man and BVI to avoid tax. This was a six-year investigation which resulted in a three-month trial at Southwark Crown Court. Mark Quayle was acquitted following a comprehensive critique of Barclays offshore companies.

R v AT (Operation Barbados) – Complex MTIC fraud allegedly committed through the sale of VOIP calls involving international resellers. Defendant was severed at half-time and is to be retried.

Royal Mail v CM - This is a complex fraud against the Royal Mail of approximately £70 million. It involves manipulation of bulk postage agreements that are offered by the RM to wholesale third-party sorters and resellers of international postage. It is a private prosecution by the RM. The defendant is being prosecuted together with his company.

R v SW (Operation Destin) – Defence of an alleged leader of a timeshare fraud involving a buyback scheme and international credits. The five month trial has been put back due to delays, originally to be tried in 2023.

R v MJA – Acting for the director of a number of UAE businesses who has been extradited from Germany to stand trial in a £380 million MTIC fraud concerning textiles and electronics. Largest MTIC fraud at the time.

Operation Aloft – Acting for the former mayor of Liverpool in a case of alleged corruption in construction contracts in Merseyside. The Times

R v Grace Purdie (Operation Bamburgh) – Successful defence of a director of two financial institutions in the UK's biggest ever mortgage fraud prosecution. Over half a million pages of evidence was served.

R v Richard Dixon – Successful defence of national car hire director upon charges of fraudulent trading.

R v Ludovic Black – He acted for the lead defendant and alleged architect of a financial repayment scheme for solar panels. The case was prosecuted by the SFO.

R v John Hardy – John Hardy, a former sergeant major, in Operation Elveden who was accused of selling stories about Prince William and Prince Harry to The Sun. He is the only source to be acquitted by a jury in those trials.

HOMICIDE

Simon has led for the defence in many of the most notorious murder cases in the last decade. He also regularly appears in corporate manslaughter cases. According to Chambers and Partners Guide to the Bar 2019, in this sector he is “at the top of his game and a silk that no other barrister wants to face in court.”

R v Carne Thomasson – The Salford gang war tit for tat shooting which led to a seven-year-old boy and his mother being shot on their door step. Thomasson was alleged to be the gangster who confronted them at the door but was acquitted of conspiracy to murder: <https://www.theguardian.com/uk-news/2019/mar/21/gang-trio-guilty-botched-hit-left-mother-and-son-shot-salford>

R v Hedley Plummer – Successful defence of a man alleged to have kicked to death the Manchester rapper, Whites. His defence that he acted in self-defence was accepted by the jury despite the assertion from the prosecution pathologist that he had only seen similar injuries when a person had been hit by a train. <https://www.manchestereveningnews.co.uk/news/greater-manchester-news/hedley-plummer-noel-white-court-15568797>

R v Alfred Kurti - Successful defence of a defendant in a cold case murder prosecution. The supergrass's identity was exposed as fraudulent despite being taken on trust by the police. <https://www.manchestereveningnews.co.uk/news/greater-manchester-news/kalvinder-bob-singh-murder-trial-10617570>

R v Dale Cregan – Defended Dale Cregan in perhaps the most notorious murder trial in recent times. Despite his admission to murdering two women police officers, he secured his acquittal upon a further hand grenade and sub-machine gun attack upon a defenceless woman. https://www.huffingtonpost.co.uk/2013/06/13/dale-cregan-trial-jury_n_3434163.html

R v Rabeel Malik – Successful defence of a mother over the violent death of her baby.

R v Bartlomej Bilas – Successful defence of alleged principal in multi-handed murder. One of the first cases in which the post Jogee law was applied

R v Adrian Rhodes – Acquittal of client for murder in a South London gang shooting.

R v Shahid Nowaz – Defence of man accused of murder in Hackney. A notorious case because the victim was mistaken for a gang member. Abandoned by the prosecution and remains unsolved.

R v Zaahid Patel – 13 week murder trial in Preston involving 5 separate cut-throat defences

TERRORISM

R v SF – Defence of man accused of a plot to kill hundreds in Whitehaven during the annual festival.

R v GL – Defence of a Muslim man paradoxically accused of far right white supremacist terror offences.

R v MC – Defence of man accused of plotting Islamist terror attacks in London. Long undercover MI5 operation.

ORGANISED CRIME

This was his speciality as junior counsel but he has continued to be in demand for the gravest and most complex cases when a certificate for a KC is granted or when instructed on a private fee basis. According to Chambers and Partners Guide to the Bar 2019: “He is incredibly bright and my number one silk for serious and complex crime.”

R v Luke Dann – This was a 10 year investigation which led to a mammoth prosecution of four defendants whom the prosecution alleged were the “bosses of the bosses” in a previous series of national and international drug conspiracies. Luke Dann was the lead defendant. There were nearly two years of disclosure applications and arguments which led to the appointment of special counsel by the Attorney-General. The prosecution offered no evidence on all counts in 2019.

R v Arran Coghlan – A substantial drugs prosecution by KC and two juniors, together with two KC special counsel, of the businessman labelled the “Teflon Don” by the media. The case collapsed during a disclosure application.

<http://tinyurl.com/6pjhwei>

R v Longden – the UK’s biggest ever drugs supply case at the time involving over £200 million worth of Class A drugs.

R v Greaves – the first ever successful application for special counsel to review PII material to enable English law to comply with Article 6. Appeal allowed in Court of Appeal owing to allegations of corruption against police officers in Lancashire Constabulary.

Operation Safe – called to the bar in the Isle of Man to defend in an undercover drugs supply case.

R v Singh – kidnapping for a substantial ransom of a “businessman” This became the leading case upon implied assertions following the introduction of the CJA 2003, R. v. Sukadeve Singh [2006] 2 Cr.App.R. 12

R v Taberer – blackmail of international money launderer who was being pursued by the Serbian and Russian mafia.

R v Pearson – a substantial police corruption case involving the sale of sensitive material to active criminals.

R v Miah – A substantial drugs prosecution which collapsed at the retrial following my successful application to exclude all the telephone evidence in the case. The submission concerned the influencing of experts with sensitive material and the manner in which the prosecution liaised with the Attorney-General’s office over special counsel.
